

you, Plunkett & YouTube...

Friday, 06 March 2009

Whilst working on our new album and a small 'gift' that we'll soon be giving to all of you who joined the IMIM Community on our site, we wanted to inform you that our first release '14 Days'

is now available on the YouTube AUDIOSWAP tool!

This means that if you upload your videos onto YouTube you can now use the AudioSwap
tool to add licensed Plunkett songs to your videos for free and share them with the YouTube community.

This can happen thanks to a recent deal between YouTube and the music licensing agency RumbleFish, of which catalog Plunkett is a part of since 2007.

'till the nex time...
